Foreword

Due to the rapid development of computer technology and its widely application in the car, many new automotive electronic control devices appeared, such as active suspension, cruise systems. Revision of this Standard is to adapt to the development of this new technology. New vocabularies regarding automotive electronic control devices, mainly a collection of relatively mature technical terms of domestic and international, are added to the original standard. Technologies not yet mature are not considered; Meanwhile, it has modified the improper words of the original standard.

Annex A and Annex B are informative Annexes.

This Standard will replace GB/T 4782-1984 from the date of its implementation.

This Standard is proposed by State Bureau of Machine-Building Industry.

This Standard is under the jurisdiction of National Technical Committee for Auto Standardization.

This Standard is drafted by: China Automotive Technology & Research Center.

Main drafters of this Standard are: Liu Yanrong, Sun Hui, Li Yanhe.

This Standard was first formulated in 1984 and this is the first revision.
